

“working to improve local opportunities”

Skills for Care London will be running this FREE workshop on 26th January 2010. The workshop will explore how the 2012 Olympics and its legacy can aid the social care sector.

Venue: Old Town Hall, Stratford

Date : 26 January 2010

Time : 9.30am -12.30pm

The workshop will look at:

- What opportunities there are in terms of skills, employment, volunteering – that could be taken up by the sector
- as well as what the Olympics will leave behind in terms of legacy (economic, social as well as structural presence) e.g. pool of possible entrants to the social care sector from those undertaking volunteering roles
- what opportunities exist for local services and how you can become involved

Delegates will also have the opportunity to network with peers in facilitated discussion groups.

The London Development Agency, the Host Borough Unit team as well as the Olympic Delivery Authority will be in attendance at the workshop.

The workshop is only open for care providers within North East London.
